TRAVEL WISE

@ EURO2016

Travel tips to enjoy the tournament… whatever the result

🐦 @dfatirl   #COYBIG

An Roinn Gnóthaí Eachtracha agus Trádála
Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade

EMERGENCY CONTACTS

Embassy Emergency Contacts

Euro2016 Consular Assistance Line (monitored 24/7 from 10 June)	+33 1441 76780
General Queries	+33 1441 76700
Embassy of Ireland	12 ave Foch, 75116 Paris (entrance 4 rue Rude) www.dfa.ie/france

We'll also have temporary consulates open for the Ireland matches, manned by Irish consular officers:

Bordeaux	17-19 June
Lille	21-23 June

Contact us in Dublin	+ 353 1408 2000 www.dfa.ie/euro2016

FRENCH EMERGENCY CONTACTS

Any emergency:	112 (999 equivalent)
Medical emergency:	15
Police:	17
Fire Brigade:	18
SNCF (Trains)	3635 (for ENGLISH dial #85)

There are English speaking staff on all these services – stay on the line and ask to be transferred to an English language speaker.

Need our Help?

The Embassy of Ireland can:

- ✔ Issue emergency travel documents
- ✔ Provide support if you've been arrested/hospitalised
- ✔ Contact family or friends
- ✔ Provide a list of English-speaking local lawyers

We cannot provide funds or legal advice

USEFUL LINKS

UEFA	http://www.uefa.com/uefaeuro/
Traffic info	http://www.bison-fute.gouv.fr/maintenant,langen.html
Public Transport Paris (RATP)	http://www.ratp.fr/en/
Trains SNCF	http://www.sncf.com/en/passengers

Remember your passport!

Check that your passport is valid for the duration of your stay in France. Scan a copy of it and email it to yourself and a family member at home.

Get a new Passport Card at dfa.ie/passport. This is valid for travel within Europe and can fit in your wallet, allowing you to leave your passport in a safe place.

European Health Insurance Card

Make sure you have your European Health Insurance Card. If you don't have one yet, visit ehic.ie for more details.

And Don't Forget ...

- Match and flight tickets
- Mobile phone charger and adapter
- Prescription medicines
- Your boots...you never know!!

REGISTER ⚙

Registering with the Embassy is quick, simple and secure and will help us contact you or your family in an emergency. You can register through dfa.ie/travel

INSURANCE

Stuff happens; get travel insurance. It will save you and your family a lot of money if something goes wrong.

FOLLOW THE RULES ✔

A state of emergency is in force in France. This means there may be long queues for public transport, stadiums, and Fanzones. Carry photo ID at all times and follow the instructions of tournament officials.

BE RESPONSIBLE

Avoid unnecessary risks – steer clear of trouble, drink responsibly and be respectful when engaging with local authorities.

STAY IN TOUCH

Let your family and friends know that you're ok and ensure they have your travel plans.

STAY CONNECTED 🌐

Follow us on @dfatravel, @dfatirl and @irlembparis where we'll push out information in an emergency. You can also find our latest travel advice at dfa.ie/travel

---

COMING SOON!
Our new TravelWise app puts all our advice for Euro2016 in your pocket. Download it for free on iOS and Android!

TRAVEL WISE

Advice you can trust for travel worldwide

An Roinn Gnóthaí Eachtracha agus Trádála
Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade