Fresh Start & Stormont House Agreements Six-Monthly Update 14 December 2016

This paper highlights some of the progress made to implement the Fresh Start and Stormont House Agreements and takes a forward look at commitments over the next six months. A six-monthly progress report is annexed, in line with the reporting arrangements established under the Stormont House Agreement.

Key Achievements

- 1. The Executive published its action plan on tackling paramilitary activity, criminality and organised crime on 19 July. Over £4 million of funding was allocated to initiatives including a public awareness campaign on organised crime; a dedicated investigative resource for the PSNI; and funding to encourage and support the role of women in community development.
- 2. £12 million was allocated for Shared Future initiatives.
- 3. Both funding rounds under the Irish Government's Reconciliation Fund have been completed and details of the grants awarded in the second round were announced at the annual Reconciliation Networking Forum on 14 December.
- The Irish Government allocated €2.5 million to the North West Development Fund to support the North West Gateway initiative.
- The UK and Irish Governments signed a treaty on 13 September to establish the Independent Reporting Commission. Membership of the Commission was announced on 14 December.
- 6. The Joint Agency Task Force has been operational and active and has reported to the two Justice Ministers meeting within the framework of the Inter-Governmental Agreement on cooperation in criminal justice matters.
- 7. Significant progress was made on delivering welfare reforms:
 - the Welfare Reform and Work (NI) Order 2016 received Royal Assent on 12 October and the second and third tranche of welfare regulations were made;
 - b. Welfare Supplementary Payments were made to over 2,500 households impacted by the benefit cap; and
 - An independent Welfare Changes Helpline was launched on 10
 November.

- 8. A 10 year vision to transform the health and social care system was launched on 25 October.
- 9. The draft Programme for Government was issued for public consultation on 28 October.
- 10. The Commission for Flags, Identity, Culture and Tradition began a period of public and sectoral engagement.
- 11. The membership of the six-person Civic Advisory Panel was announced on 6 December.
- 12. The Bill to reduce the number of MLAs to five per constituency received Royal Assent on 22 July.
- 13. Two new funding streams worth in excess of £30million were opened for victims and survivors on 24 November including the Victims Support Programme worth £18.7million and PEACE IV funding of €17.6 million.
- 14. Agreement was reached on the Terms of Letters of Offer to programme beneficiaries for PEACE IV and INTERREG VA projects, these cross-border cooperation programmes being worth almost half a billion euro and which are important drivers of regional development in a cross-border context.

Looking Forward

- The Executive will agree and publish its Programme for Government and supporting strategies and agree its 2017-18 Resource Budget and 2017-20 Capital Budget.
- 2. The UK and Irish Governments will continue to work with the parties, the Executive and victims' groups and others to build the consensus needed to establish the legacy institutions, including by launching a public phase as soon as possible.
- 3. A new service delivery model for victims and survivors will be introduced in April 2017.
- 4. The UK and Irish Governments will make the final arrangements for the establishment of the Independent Reporting Commission.
- 5. The independent Fiscal Council will be established.
- The UK Government remains committed to the devolution of corporation tax powers subject to the delivery of the financial reforms outlined in the Stormont House Agreement.

- 7. Drawdown from Executive match funding on the North West Development Fund will be made in early 2017.
- 8. Senior officials will continue to meet through 2017 to monitor progress on implementation of Section E commitments and an update will be provided to NSMC Plenary.

The Early Intervention Programme Board is developing an outcome-based plan to address the issue of diverting young people from involvement in paramilitary activity. Initial engagement has taken place with stakeholders.
	Development of a programme to increase the participation and influence of women in community development.	A detailed co-design process is underway with consultation planned for January 2017.
	Additional programmes aimed at reducing re- offending.	Funding has been allocated to the Department of Justice to commission research into effective programmes aimed at reducing reoffending. The research specification is to be agreed by end December 2016.
A3.10 Page 17	 Support for Transition Initiatives to help moves away from paramilitary structures and activity. 	The Executive action plan, published on 19 July, set out high level measures including a dedicated fund to support communities in transition. A process of community engagement and co-design is underway to develop delivery programmes. Funding has been allocated for a scoping study on a restorative justice centre of excellence.
	The reintegration of people previously involved in the Troubles taking into account the report of the Review Panel on employers' guidance on recruiting.	The second report of the Ex-Prisoners Working Group was considered as part of the Executive's Action Plan. Recommendations to aid greater uptake of Employers Guidance have been made. The Review Panel has discussed uptake of the principles outside the public sector and will bring forward proposals to the Ex-prisoners working group for consideration.

A5 Weste	rn Corridor serving the North West
E2.2 Page 31	the Irish Government reaffirms its existing commitment to providing funding of £50 million for this project. It will also commit an additional £25m to ensure that Phase 1 of the project can commence as soon as the necessary planning issues have been resolved by the Northern Ireland authorities. In accordance with the revised project timeline, the Irish Government funding will be provided in three tranches of £25m in the years 2017, 2018 and 2019 respectively.	A Public Inquiry into the A5 Scheme is underway and the Inspector's Report is expected around May 2017. The spend profile and payment milestones for the Irish Government's contributions will be reviewed following the outcomes of the Public Inquiry. The High Court recently dismissed the claim that an ongoing public inquiry into the need for the road was planned.
E2.3 Page 31	the Executive and the Irish Government have agreed that construction on the first section of the A5 will commence in 2017 with a view to completion by 2019. The first section will be the route between New Buildings (outside Derry/Londonderry) to north of Strabane.	Notwithstanding the ongoing legal challenge the A5 construction work remains on track to start in late 2017.
The Ulste	r Canal
E3.3 Page 31	The Executive and the Irish Government agree to undertake a review with a view to identifying options for jointly developing future phases of the Ulster Canal restoration project, for consideration by the North South Ministerial Council in June 2016.	Phase 1 of the reopening of the 2.5km of the Ulster Canal is ongoing. An Ulster Canal Advisory Forum has been established to look at options for advancing the project and potential funding mechanisms.
E3.4 Page 31	As part of the Mid Term Review of the Capital Plan, the Irish Government will work also with the Northern Ireland Executive to seek agreement on a funding plan for the Atlantic Youth Trust initiative. This proposal involves a new sail training vessel to facilitate youth development, mentoring, and training on an all-island basis.	A strategic outline business case is being prepared by the project promoters and will be assessed in relation to Value for Money, affordability and governance.

Government continue to engage with the Executive, political parties, victims' groups and others to build the consensus needed to establish the legacy institutions, including by launching a public phase as soon as possible. Two new funding streams worth in excess of £30million were opened for victims and survivors on 24 November including the Victims Support Programme worth £18.7million and PEACE IV funding of €17.6million. The Executive Office, with the Victims and Survivors Service, the Commission for Victims and Survivors and key stakeholders has been taking forward a collaborative design programme to review and improve services for victims and survivors. A new service delivery model designed to be simple, victims-centred and easier to access is planned to be operational from April 2017.
