

DECLARATION OF ALIENAGE BY A PERSON OF FULL AGEPlease note*

Section 21 (1) of the Irish Nationality and Citizenship Act 1956, as amended, provides that if an Irish citizen of full age is or is about to become a citizen of another country and for that reason desires to renounce citizenship, he or she may do so, if ordinarily resident outside the State, by lodging with the Minister a declaration of alienage in the prescribed manner (using this form) and, upon lodgment of the declaration or, if not then a citizen of that country, upon becoming such, shall cease to be an Irish citizen. Under Section 21(2) an Irish citizen may not, except with the consent of the Minister, renounce Irish citizenship under this section during a time of war as defined in Article 28.3.3 of the Constitution.
