30336662	Refused	F:- Finances:- evidence provided is deemed insufficient or incomplete - according to the documents you have submitted regarding your salary and funds available to you, it is deemed that these are insufficient for a 14 day trip to Ireland. ID:- Insufficient documentation submitted in support of the application:- please see link to "Documents Required" as displayed on our website - www.inis.gov.ie
30336692	Refused	The visa was rejected before due to the following reasons: FM:- There is no automatic right for non-EEA nationals who are (extended) family members of Irish citizens to migrate on a long-term basis to Ireland. ID:- Stated marriage is not deemed sufficient for immigration\visa purposes - For Irish immigration purposes, to be legally entitled to marry, both of you must fulfil a number of requirements at the time the marriage takes place. One of those is that both parties must be over the age of 18. In this case, Ms Esra Bennour was 17 years old at the time of marriage. As outlined in section 15.1 of the Policy Document on Non-EEA Family Reunification the eligibility requirement for spouse is as follows: “The spouse, civil partner or de facto partner must be at least 18 years of age at the time of their application for family reunification. Consideration was given to adopting a higher minimum age of 21 years as a means of discouraging forced marriages or unions where the youth of one party rendered them vulnerable. However, it has been decided for the present to retain the current position whereby the age threshold for spousal family reunification is the same as applies in respect of eligibility to marry within the State. While it is possible in many jurisdictions to marry at a younger age and a court dispensation may in certain circumstances be obtained within this State to set aside the age limit for one or both parties, it is not intended to follow this through in terms of family reunification. The 18 year limit will be maintained.” As Mr. Mohammed Aborsriwil is ordinarily resident in the State, the minimum age of his spouse must be 18 years (unless he had a Court Exemption Order). This is the case for all citizens of the State even if they choose to marry outside of Ireland. Section 31(1) of the Family Law Act 1995 (revised to 18 January 2016) states as follows: 31.—(1)(a) (i) A marriage solemnised, after the commencement of this section, between persons either of whom is under the age of 18 years shall not be valid in law. (ii) Subparagraph (i) applies to any marriage solemnised— (I) in the State, irrespective of where the spouses or either of them are or is ordinarily resident, or (II) outside the State, if at the time of the solemnisation of the marriage, the spouses or either of them are or is ordinarily resident in the State. (b) Paragraph (a) does not apply if exemption from it was granted under section 33 before the marriage concerned. (c) The requirement in relation to marriage arising by virtue of paragraph (a) is hereby declared to be a substantive requirement for marriage. As a result of the Family Law Act, 1995 and having due regard to the eligibility criteria as set out in section 15.1 of the Policy Document on Non-EEA Family Reunification, we are refusing this application. RH:- Relationship History - Have not shown evidence of a relationship being in existence prior to visa application/marriage. Note: For immigration purposes it is not sufficient for a relationship to have developed over the internet or by

You must satisfy the visa officer that the relationship is bona-fide - no evidence of your relationship history has been submitted whatsoever. In conclusion this application is refused on the basis that it fails to meet the requirements of the Policy Document on Non-EEA Family Reunification. In particular that it fails to meet the eligibility criteria for a D-Join Spouse Visa or to establish that any special circumstances exist that would warrant an exception in this case. No rights under Article 8 of ECHR and Article 41 of the Constitution are engaged as the veracity of the marriage is not accepted and is also deemed insufficient for immigration purposes.

According to our records this is incorrect as you were refused a visa to the United Kingdom on 15 March 2017. It therefore appears that you have provided false and misleading information. As it appears that you have provided false and misleading information you should address this issue (in addition to any other issues set-out above) in any appeal that you should make. If you appeal this decision and this issue is not adequately addressed, you will be prohibited from applying for another visa to Ireland for a minimum period of five years. If, however you do not appeal this decision/this issue, the five year ban will take immediate effect.

30999212	Refused	ID:- Insufficient documentation submitted in support of the application:- please see link to "Documents Required" as displayed on our website - www.inis.gov.ie INCO:- Inconsistencies e.g. contradictions in the information supplied - in reply to the question 'have you ever been refused a visa to another country' you recorded 'no'. According to our records this is incorrect as you were refused a visa to the United Kingdom on 22 June 2017. It therefore appears that you have provided false and misleading information. OC:- Observe the conditions of the visa - the visa sought is for a specific purpose and duration:- the applicant has not satisfied the visa officer that such conditions would be observed - Based on the information & documentation provided, you have not demonstrated that you would observe the conditions of the visa sought. As it appears that you have provided false and misleading information you should address this issue (in addition to any other issues set-out above) in any appeal that you should make. If you appeal this decision and this issue is not adequately addressed, you will be prohibited from applying for another visa to Ireland for a minimum period of five years. If, however you do not appeal this decision/this issue, the five year ban will take immediate effect.
